CALL COMMITTEE

The call committee has been diligently reviewing profiles and conducting various stages of interviews for the past several months. We recently interviewed a candidate and made the decision to present their name to council. On September 29, a special council meeting was held during which the candidate was presented to council. At the meeting, the council voted unanimously to bring the candidate to the congregation for a vote. Additionally, council voted to approve a congregational meeting to be held on Sunday, October 19 at 12pm. At this time, candidate will be discussed, and a congregational vote will take place to determine if we are going to call the candidate as our next pastor at the Lutheran Church of Dell Rapids. In addition to the congregational meeting, we will have opportunities for the congregation to meet the candidate. We will be hosting a meet and greet on Saturday, October 18 from 2 to 4 pm in the fellowship hall. Additionally, the candidate will be giving the children’s sermon and sermon at both services on Sunday, October 19 and will be attending the fellowship time between services. We ask that you please consider attending the congregational meeting on October 19. In closing, I want to offer my sincere gratitude for the prayers and well wishes as we move through this process. The Lutheran Church of Dell Rapids is a strong and vibrant congregation, and the call committee has remained steadfast in our charge to call a pastor with the gifts the congregation indicated they desired. I hope to see all of you at the meet and greet and congregational meeting.
